14. DESCRIPTION OF AMENDMENT/MODIFICATION (Organized by UCF section headings, including solicitation/contract subject matter where feasible.)

Amendment issued to cancel solicitation.

Due, in part, to recent inflationary pressures driven by higher fuel costs and higher cost-of-living-adjustments linked to the change in the Consumer Price Index paid to our over 600,000 bargaining employees, our projected financial situation is deteriorating. Additionally, actual cash flow from operations fell $768 million dollars below assumptions that formed the basis of our recent rate case, as to amounts needed to fulfill obligations under a 2003 federal law that requires the Postal Service to establish a $3.1 billion escrow account. Public Law 108-18, The Postal Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) Funding Act of 2003, requires that the Postal Service, beginning in FY 2006, hold in escrow an amount equal to the difference between the CSRS retirement costs before and after the Continued ...

	implementation of this law. In addition, recent operational technology enhancements, such as the upcoming Flat Sequencing System (FSS), may significantly change future carrier route vehicle requirements. The pending mail sortation technology will increase the volume and change the composition of mail on the routes. The stowage, handling, and sequencing of the mail awaiting delivery will be substantially altered to accommodate anticipated revised delivery methods. Collectively, these new requirements may necessitate fundamental vehicle specification revisions, impact the quantity of vehicles required, and may result in an entirely different type of vehicle.
